An Old Congregation in Upper Saucon (Blue Church)

by Benjamin Trexler

Translated from German by Rev. Melville B. Schmoyer, /34

Before writing more in general concerning "Saucon", I would desire to centre your attention upon a settlement consisting mostly of Lutherans and Reformed, having come from Germany, who already previous to 1740 must have organized a congregation. In that year three children were brought from Egypt to Saucon church (14 miles) and were there baptized on Sept. 23 by the Rev. Inspector Peter Heinrich Torschius. Said Torschius evidently belonged to the Netherland Reformed church and had been delegated to visit the German congregations in America and report to the officials in Europe. The Saucon ~~congregation~~ church on account of its color is generally known as the "BLUE CHURCH". By virtue of the gracious consent of the organist living at the church, Mr. M. B. Harwig, I was permitted to examine the Church-Records from whence mostly the early history of the first settlement must be drawn. The major portion of the following historical sketch I am indebted to my friend, P. W. Flores, who was in possession of the report read by the departed Pastor Vogelbach, at the Centennial Anniversary of the congregation, which report had also been printed. One will notice that the "Hallische Nachrichten" have been diligently made use of and frequently are the only known source whence the history of American Lutheranism can be obtained. I am not aware whether the Reformed church possesses anything ~~max~~ which might shed light on the early history.

Rev. Vogelbach's Account.

Today the children of the faithful fathers and grandfathers could raise an "Ebenezer" and say "Hitherto the Lord hath helped us". ~~How may~~ <sup>How may</sup> ~~we~~ have been a hundred years ago in this beautiful Saucon valley? The same old sun, which we see in the heavens today, sent even then its beams upon this valley; however not upon such green pastures and richly covered fields as we behold ~~it~~ today. Here and there the industrious tiller of the soil had reared his log-cabin, permitting light to penetrate into the primeval ~~woods~~ <sup>forests</sup>. Amongst the thousand and many times thousand of immigrants coming thither during the first half of the previous century, from the Palatinate, Württemberg and Alsace, there had been many pious Lutherans, who believed what the Scripture states: "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Already in 1742 the number of Germans in Pennsylvania is said to have numbered 100,000, most of whom were Lutherans. Generally the devout amongst these immigrants speedily flocked together, after being settled and soon erected a small log-church in their midst with a school-house alongside. The early settlers in this Saucon valley, a hundred years ago, associated themselves and erected a little church. It is impossible any longer to determine in what year the congregation was begun, organized and the first church erected. But from the first (the oldest) Church-Record we learn that already in 1739 children were baptized in this congregation. The first Church-Record was begun in 1748, evidently by virtue of instructions from H. M. Muhlenberg, the Patriarch of the Lutheran church in America.

On November 25, 1742 (having come from Charleston, S. C.), H. M. Muhlenberg as an ambassador from the Orphanage at Halle, arrived in Philadelphia, in order to serve the congregations at Philadelphia, New-Hanover and Providence (in Montgomery county). In 1745 he

2- removed from Philadelphia to Providence. From thence very soon his field of operation extended even unto the Blue mountains. Already in the same year (1745), representatives of this congregation, possessing a church and school-building, journeyed twenty five miles to Providence to see Muhlenberg and "implored him to take them into his care". In 1746 Muhlenberg writes (Hallische Nachrichten, p. 191) This congregation in Saccum (Saucun) has persisted in imploring us that we should conduct divine services every four weeks upon a week-day and attend to the ministerial acts. We have already served it for a year, though the way thither is arduous. Nevertheless I pity the people, who mostly are poor, live widely scattered and seem as if entirely forsaken." Again he writes (H.N. p. 178) "Since the two small congregations in Saccum and Upper Milford have up to the present had the benefit of our services, however Mr. Kurz being away, I was at a loss what to do. Personally it is impossible to serve them, since I have become infirm and once previously on the way thither, owing to quackmires, fairly passable by day, but very dangerous at night, I endangered my life. I resigned further service of the two congregations. But on their part, they wept, because there are hungry souls amongst them". Muhlenberg sent unto them Mr. Vigera, who had taught school in his home and being in some measure instructed by Muhlenberg, had him deliver a sermon from Rambach which he had memorized." Concerning him, Muhlenberg states: "He is a gifted singer and possesses a marvelous memory. The two congregations were satisfied with him, since up to the present he has conducted himself in accord with his Christian calling, is pleasing in intercourse, takes an interest in children and faithfully catechizes them".

In August 1747, Muhlenberg visited the congregation again, "selected suitable men for the church council, examined the members as to their spiritual condition as well as their daily life; held the preparatory service and administered the Holy Communion." "Old and young, like children, cheerfully submit to be examined" Muhlenberg states. But like children, they also readily quarrel and ~~bring~~ up everything until the pastor comes to settle the dispute."

Muhlenberg insisted upon genuine preparation of the heart in order to partake of the Holy Communion. He says (H.N. p. 183): "Holy Communion is ~~kept~~ in the following manner: during the preceding week everyone, desiring to commune, must come to the parsonage or the school-house and announce himself to the preacher. One takes note of whatever one has learned ~~by conversation with the members~~ from personal conversation or other sources concerning each member, and inasmuch as in the recording of the name, opportunity is afforded to ~~the~~ to speak with each one ~~by himself~~, one avails himself of this chance to speak about the inner (spiritual) condition of the heart and makes inquiry in the growth in grace, also gives necessary admonitions, encouragement and consolation as may be necessary under the circumstances. For the preparatory service one selects a suitable text reminding ~~of penance~~ the need of ~~penance~~, as the occasion may demand. Afterwards all the members appear before the altar, arranged in a semi-circle, and if there be any ~~one~~ amongst them, who has given open offence, they ~~must advance one after the other~~ ~~must advance one after the other~~ must advance one after the other. The pastor once more up-raises them with their sin, admonishes them to ~~true repentance~~ and demands repentance, sorrow, faith and amendment of life. After confession has been made, the minister inquires of every member present whether they are willing to pardon the offence and pray for him that God may help him through Christ."

In February, 1748, Muhlenberg undertook a visit to these congregations with graves risk to life (H.N., p. 261)." This time I had this comfort from the congregations, the spirit of God through His Word had made marked changes in the spiritual life of both". In the month of July during the same year, he came, examined and confirmed "a small number of young people, whom the school-master Vigera had diligently and faithfully instructed and prepared for confirmation." "He administered the Holy Communion to old and young, at which time he took notice of this and other blessings, which encouraged him to continue his services in the congregation provided God would provide life and strength." (p. 280)

On August 15, 1748, the first meeting of the Ministerium was held in Philadelphia, which was attended by a delegate from this congregation.

In the Fall of 1748 the old school-master Vigera had been called to Philadelphia and therefore had to relinquish this congregation. The congregation was now in great danger of being seduced by a vagabond, because Muhlenberg personally could hardly visit the same during the rough winter months. He writes (p. 316) "Amidst my afflictions, I learn that in Saccum already a so-called minister, who had been deposed previously (on account of an exceeding scandalous life) is again sneaking in. No sooner has one planted the tiniest plant and turns one back, pests will already adhere thereto and devour it." ~~ix~~

In the month of March, 1749 Rudolph Heinrich Schrenk came from Lunenburg (Nova Scotia) to Philadelphia and, by the ministers of Philadelphia, was directed to Providence where he put up at Muhlenberg's home on the nineteenth of April.

"Since the congregations in Milford and Saccum were wholly uncared for", Muhlenberg promptly concluded to place Mr. Schrenk as catechist in charge of these ~~xxx~~ congregations" - During the latter part of May, Muhlenberg visited the congregations, admonishing them to preserve concord, and told them about "r. Schrenk (H.N., p. 329)"

Again in August he visited the congregations and "confirmed two English wives at Saccum and also administered the Holy Communion". (p. 332). November 20, 1749, Muhlenberg writes: It is a matter of the greatest importance to preserve the congregations up in the mountains; hope of Mr. Schrenk's growth in grace together with the insistent imploring of the congregations, warranted Muhlenberg to station ~~xxxx~~ Vigera as catechist at these places, on trial for a year." They set out to visit the congregations and on November 22, Muhlenberg "with satisfaction held preparatory services and administered the Holy Communion" in this congregation because the communicants manifested orderliness, submissiveness and ~~and~~ for grace. "After the service, Mr. Schrenk was directed to his new home, who was exceedingly "timid", having been accustomed to rather miserable conditions". (p. 341).

The Church-Record which I was permitted to inspect, begins with the following title-page:

Kirchen Matricul

which translated declares:

"Church Record

Concerning marriages the following because of oddities, may be set down:-

- May 15, 1750 Johann Adam Kuckert was married to Johanna Elisabetha Laubach, Christian Laubach's legitimate daughter.
- April 14, 1757- Peter Sohns from beyond the Blue Mountains was married to Anna Maria Raup, Michael Raup's daughter in that place.
- May 3, - Johann Ahrenhold Eberhard from Egypt was married to Anna Margreth Weber, Friedrich Weber's daughter in Lower Saucon.
- Febr. 21, 1758- Michael Engelhard, soldier in Capt. Ahren's Company, was married to Maria Margrethe Koch, Jacob Koch's daughter from Dryland.
- Sept. 8, 1758- Georg Stolze, widower, was married to Anna Elisabeth Roth, relict of Jacob Roth, who had been killed beyond the Blue Mountains, by the Indians.

After the fore mentioned-insertion, we shall let Pastor Vogelbach continue his sketch.

"Mr. Schrenk labored diligently and faithfully as catechist in this congregation until he was ordained at Providence on Nov. 5, 1752." Muhlenberg visited the congregation regularly, held confirmation and administered the Holy Communion until Mr. Schrenk was ordained. Muhlenberg writes (H.N., p. 351): "In the month of May I visited the four small congregations, wherein Mr. Schrenk hitherto acted as substitute. I had to administer in the same the Holy Communion and also confirm young people ~~xxx Schrenk had~~ whom Mr. Schrenk had pretty diligently and faithfully instructed." Mr. Schrenk entered in the church tered in the Church-Record:—"On May 22, 1750 the following, having previously been instructed by me, were publicly examined and confirmed in the presence of the congregation and admitted to the Lord's Supper: Jacob Gangewehr, Andreas Raub, Catharina Marsteller, Catharina Dorszlinger and Anna Christina Marder." Thereupon the names of the communicants, numbering one hundred and forty two, follow.

After his ordination, Rev. Schrenk served this congregation until the close of 1753, when he followed a call to Raritan in New Jersey. Together with this congregation, he also served the congregations at the 'Forks of the Delaware (Easton), Saccana, Upper Milford and several smaller ones beyond the Blue Mountains. "He labored in these widely scattered fields "with ~~with diligence~~, possible diligence, anxiety and danger to life, for many years and with marked blessings." (p. 651).

Schrenk's successor in this congregation had been Johannes Andreas Friederici or Friederichs, also at first only a catechist, who came in the Spring of 1754.

Friederici served this congregation until the close of the year 1762, about eight years. He had removed beyond the Blue Mountains, to Smithfield, some years previous to his relinquishing this congregation. From there he rode every two weeks over thirty (30) miles of poor roads in order to preach the Gospel at this place.

Muhlenberg reports concerning this servant of Christ in 1778: "Frederici lives in the direction of the Blue Mountains, who forty years ago was my fellow-student at Goettingen, and who has labored, struggled and suffered. He is old, physically exhausted and bed-ridden and as a consequence of his inability to follow his calling, in very poor circumstances." Again, in 1782, Muhlenberg writes: "Old Mr. Friederici, now almost seventy years of age, unable to preach, reclines in poverty and misery."

Johannes Joseph Roth, a 'Catholic studiosus', "who on June 29, 1762, was carefully examined as to his doctrine, earnestly admonished and requested to await father decision as to his reception into the Ministerium, became the pastor of the congregation in 1763." He called upon Muhlenberg, in 1763, with a petition from the congregation in (Upper) Milford, who begged that he might become their pastor. Muhlenberg sanctioned it and in the month of October of the same year, he was "received into the Ministerium". He died in 1764 and was buried on May 13 (on the cemetery of this congregation).

Who served this congregation from 1764 to 1769, cannot positively be determined. According to the entries in the Church-Record, there is evidence that the sacraments were regularly administered during this period. Only for the year 1769 there is no entry. Working - there is an entry for 1769 - 1770

Towards the close of 1769, Rev. Jacob VanBuskirk from Germantown became the pastor of this and affiliated congregations.

Muhlenberg reports in 1778: "Rev. Mr. Buskirk, who had been ordained as deacon at New Hanover, is in good repute and high esteem amongst his congregations in Macunsky (Lehigh Zion's Church near Alburtis), Saccum (Blue Church), Upper Milford (Dillingersville congregation), etc." And to the secretary, in Dec., 1782, he writes: "Rev. Mr. Buskirk still cares for three or four congregations in Macunsky, is still lively and robust and possesses extraordinary talents for catechising". Some of his descendants are living in Upper Milford and Macungie.

When Rev. Buskirk resigned this congregation and who had been his successor, cannot be learned from the Church-Record. However evidently it had been Rev. George Fr. Ellisen, who, on Sept. 29, 1793, administered the Holy Communion, at this place. The oldest members of the congregation still recall many things which they can relate about him. After Mr. Ellisen's departure, the congregation had been without a regular pastor for some years. It was cared for by ~~xxxx~~ neighboring pastors.

On the twenty second Sunday after Trinity, 1800, Rev. F. W. Geissenhainer administered communion. Rev. Röller from Goshenhoppen also ~~prea~~ preached here, and from 1800 to 1803, Rev. John F. Kramer preached in the other congregations of the parish, which were served together with this one, viz. Salisbury, Upper Milford and Macungie. He ~~ent~~ <sup>is mentioned</sup> in the Church-Record of the congregation at Salisbury and refers to the three above-mentioned congregations, but does not mention Saucon. Probably he also preached here.

On April 12, 1806, Rev. Frederick Plitt confirmed a class of catechumens in this congregation and administered the communion. In the list confirmed are found the following names: Andreas Wind, Georg ~~W~~ Weber, Jacob Schmidt, Elisabeth Reinhard, Eva Bidding, Catharina Horlacher, etc. Plitt served only for a brief period at this place.

His successor had been Rev. Heine, who administered communion on April 5, 1809. He served for about nine years as pastor of the congregations at Salisbury, Upper Milford, Saucon and Macungie. Most of the older members of the congregation were instructed and confirmed by him and still have not forgotten him. He held his last communion in this congregation in April, 1817.

His successor had been Rev. Heinrich G. Stecher, who during the same year (1817) assumed charge of the congregation, but, as it seems, things were not harmonious, for on November 29, there were only nine (9) communicants. He remained here only two years.

In the Fall of 1819, Rev. Benjamin German was elected and accepted the call. (During his pastorate the Saucon congregation granted, Jan. 21, 1826, to the Reformed equal rights to hold services. The first record of such services appears in ~~1822~~ 1802.) In his last years of service while in poor health, Rev. Benjamin German had the assistance of Rev. P. K. Bröbst and Reformed Theological student ~~echant~~ <sup>echant</sup>. He died in 1848 and lies buried at Allentown.

His brother, Rev. William German succeeded him, but after three years, death also claimed him. He was born Sept. 16, 1796, died June 28, 1851, is buried at Jerusalem Church, Western Salisbury.

Rev. Jacob Vogelbach assumed charge Sept. 12 (March 3), 1852. The charge then comprised the congregations at Milford, Upper and Lower Saucon (Appel's), Salisbury, Allentown and this congregation. At Allentown, Rev. Schmucker became his assistant and preached in English until St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church was erected in 1854-55. St. Paul's, Allentown, also built a new church, the corner-stone of which was laid by Rev. Vogelbach.

The next pastor was Rev. William Rath. He assumed charge ~~of~~ <sup>at</sup> this congregation, May, 1857. He continued to serve until 1888. (He was born near Friedensville, Sept. 23, 1826-died at Allentown, July 2, 1889).

His son, Rev. Myron O Rath, succeeded him after 1887 and served for a period of ten years. (He was born at Petersville, Sept. 25, 1854-died at Allentown May 25, 1920).

His successor was Rev. E. A. Yehl, who assumed charge in 1889. the parish then consisted ~~of~~ <sup>in</sup> the Blue church, Chestnut Hill, Zionsville and Appel's. He resigned May 6, 1893. (he was born May 17, 1860 in North Whitehall twsp.-died at Allentown Hospital, July 23, 1934). On Nov. 29, 1892 the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary was celebrated by the congregation.

Rev. William W. Aistler, whilst a student supplied, was elected pastor and assumed charge after his ordination, June, 1894. He served here until he retired, Nov. 1, 1933, being elected pastor emeritus. (He was born sept. 12, 1861 - died Jan. 5, 1940)

Rev. W. W. Kistler's retirement was conditioned upon the election of his son, Rev. D. D. Kistler. This was done and the son assumed charge Nov. 1, 1933.

When the first church had been built is no longer known. It had been a log-church. It stood in the old graveyard and was in use in 1742.

The second church, built of stone, was erected in 1763, and the third (likewise built of stone and in use 1934) was erected in 1833-1834. <sup>1833</sup> (date of dedication built.)

There is still extant a bill of exchange or draught of the land (property), whereon the church is standing, on May 18, 1757. This land was deeded by Philip Geisinger to the trustees, John Appel, Balthaser Beil and Andreas Erdman. The land was dedicated for the use of a Lutheran church, school-house and cemetery.

(The inhabitants of this fertile and thickly-populated township are in greater part descendants of Germans, whose ancestors had come from the Palatinate and other portions of Germany. Some of them were so poor that they could not pay their sea-passage and were sold in servitude for a period of five years (known as redemption-ers) unto such persons as satisfied their passage money. Many of these persons, who faithfully served their period, rose to become worthy and respected citizens.)

Rev. Melville B. Schmoyer, (Historian & Genealogist).
